

Oliver Mercer, Tenor

A specialist of the Baroque era, Tenor Oliver Mercer has enjoyed recent engagements with Clarion Music Society, Trinity Wall Street and The Thirteen, performing the works of Monteverdi, Handel and J.S. Bach.

Oliver has performed with Glyndebourne Opera Festival, Spoleto Festival USA, Opera Theater Company Ireland, Charleston Bach Festival, Savannah Philharmonic, Charleston Symphony, and Mid Wales Opera. He has appeared as a soloist at Carnegie Hall, Lincoln Center, Trinity Wall Street, the Barbican London, and the Royal Albert Hall.

Recent engagements include performances of Monteverdi's Vespro della Beata Vergine, the role of Evangelist in J.S. Bach's setting of the St. Matthew Passion and an international tour as a member of the Clarion Music Society in performances of Handel's Solomon with the English Concert led by Harry Bicket.